Rog,

Well where do I start big brother and where do I end. It's really was fun knowing you in my Junior year. Just think of the thing we've done that I dare not put in this annual. It's our Senior year now Rog it's the best of all our high school years. So take it easy. Your about the best brother anyone could ever ask for. Just think of the problems you have helped me with. But I've tryed to be a help to you, but you never ever listened. If you would have listened you would have been going with me. Just kidding.

I really should wish you the best of luck, I don't have to because the best always comes to you. The best of luck Rog, in whatever you attempt to do. Stay as sweet as you are and you will go far. I know that for sure. Maybe you'll get to be manager at Orufant's. I'll let you go simply because I don't know what to really write in this! Be Good and God Bless you and may the tide of luck run with ya!

Always a sister and fun

Viki "65"

P.S. Stay with Char she's really sweet.

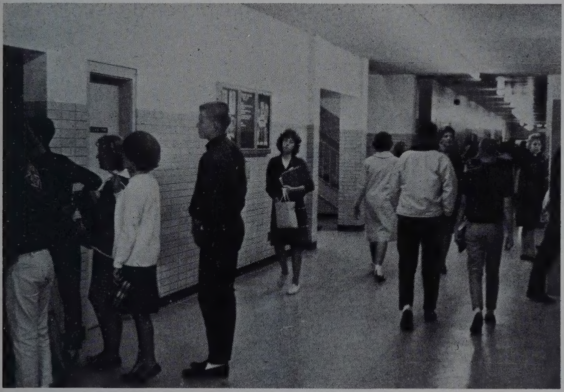
SENIOR HIGHLIGHTS



Registration marked the beginning of our senior year.

It did not take long to get acquainted with Friederike Kluge, our exchange student from Germany.

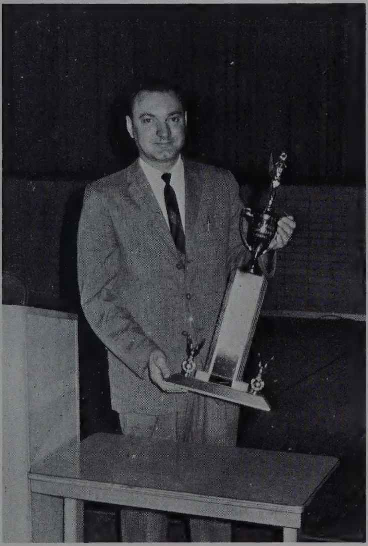
Queen Barb and King Steve led our homecoming festivities.

Come on, Dave, break that tie!

"Charley's Aunt," the Senior Play, was a great success.

Visiting President Kennedy's grave was one of the many impressive events that made our Senior Trip a memorable one.

Skip day at Long Lake was our last outing together as a class.

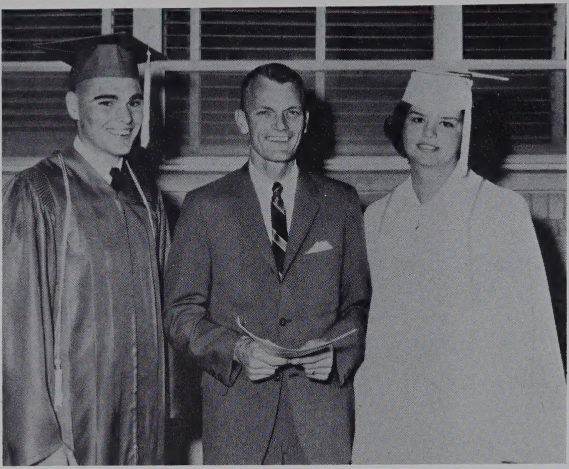


As Seniors, we helped win the sportsmanship trophy.

Everyone had a wonderful time at the Junior-Senior Prom, "Roman Holiday," which was sponsored by the Juniors.

Our graduation announcements have arrived!

Ou



The main speakers—Gene Beals, Mr. Jeltes, and Gail Riley relax before their commencement address.

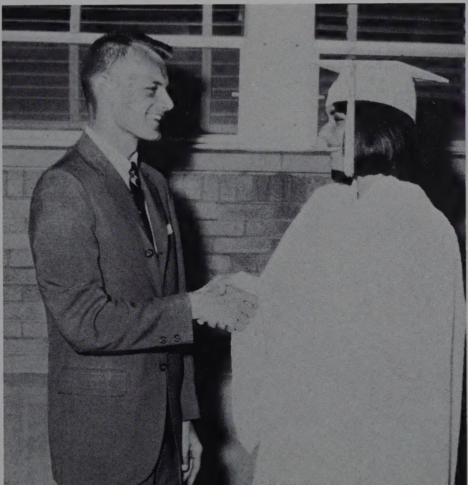
Junior Class marshals—Connie Stace and Van Pfetzing begin the long processional.

Anticipation!

ommencement

The Seniors listen attentively to the address and eagerly await that trip across the stage for their diplomas.

Mr. Jeltes congratulates Friederike upon her graduation as our foreign exchange student for this year.



We, The Seniors, Dedicate The 1964 Century To You . . .

Mr. Leonard Wilkins

Class of 1964:

"Thank you so much for the honor that you have bestowed on me by presenting to me the dedication of the 1964 Century. This completely surprising event helped to make this a most memorable occasion of my life. After 13 wonderful years in this school, I—like you—have mixed emotions about leaving. It has been a pleasure to have had you in my classes and to work with you. I shall cherish this honor and the memories that it will help to recall. Best wishes as you commence a new and larger phase of your life. This honor has truly been for me, " the end of a perfect day."

Sincerely,

Leonard D. Wilkins

"How High Is Up"

"Up is farther than anyone can see. Up is past the sky, the planets, the sun, the stars. Up is farther than anything that there is in this universe that we live in. Up is farther than anyone has ever been. Up is farther than anyone will ever go alive.

Up, past the sky, the planets, the sun, the stars, there is a gleaming, beautiful, luxurious place where everyone wants to go. Where there are castles of diamonds that sparkle in the misty light. The gleaming castles are surrounded by pools of glistening clouds that float gently through the sweet, fragrant air.

There are many people around the gleaming castles of red and shimmering white. They are dressed in smokey white robes that fly in the crystal light. They have a ring of golden light around their heads each night.

Where is up? In Heaven."

–An excerpt from an essay written by Jim Hill in 1961.

Shorty, Good luck with Dave (poison) You're both swell kids (no offense) just no favoritism! Best of luck in your last year and don't spoil our class trip for us. O.K.? Friend O.K. Char? Julie Ann Austin (momma's girl)

Rog, Gosh what can I say to my sweet lover? Just ~~[illegible]~~ your a good Kid! and Take care of Char, and remember the 6th grade. See ya in school. Phyllis '65

The culmination of our high school career marks the commencement of our future.

SAVE

for who me or Char

Rog

I don't know where to begin on telling you how much fun I've had with you. You're the nicest kid I've ever gone with and you probably always will be. We've had so many good times together and I know I won't forget a single one. Of course, there were other times, but we'll try and forget them. The good ones make up for them anyhow. I'll never forget the times we went out with your folks in the boat. You've got a swell family & you treat em' nice. And then there's always the prom. That night alone fills half my scrap book. And how about all the times we went to the beach. I'll never forget any of it.

I know you'll turn out to be a great success and I hope you achieve everything that you attempt in life. You deserve nothing but the very best and I hope you always get it.

You make friends easy and always seem to keep 'em. Yep, you're quite a guy. One I know I'll never forget.

I don't always let my feelings loose and show you how much I really care about ya, but believe me I don't know what I'd do without ya.

I don't get jealous easy but that doesn't mean I don't care. You've propably already found that out. I've gone with a lot of kids and I might go with a lot more before I ever get married but none of them will ever compare with you, I know.

There's an old saying that says all good things must come to an end, but I hope there's an exception to the rule. I'm sure we can have many more laughs and good times together; and here's hoping we do.

Love Always,
Char
